

I feel that the FCC should not implement any proposal that lessens the impact of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. We used to receive 2 or 3 calls per evening but now seldom get 1 a week. I appreciate having the freedom to choose not to be bothered with these intrusive calls.